

2017-18 Kindergarten Schedule

We have made changes in the May calendar because of a change in the district calendar. Please look carefully at the May dates for both kindergarten groups. We are not scheduled to attend on May 14.

Kindergarten students will attend either all day Tuesday and Thursday or all day Wednesday and Friday. Additionally, each group of students will attend some Mondays as well. To help keep the number of attendance days equal for each group, the schedule is not always every other Monday, so please keep this schedule handy to help you know which days your child attends on Mondays. Although it appears the Wednesday-Friday class attends more days, the total number of days and hours are comparable for both classes because of the way holidays and delay days fall on the calendar.

To help parents plan their schedules, we are presenting this calendar listing all the Mondays children will attend school all day. Please keep this schedule in a safe place so you may refer to it throughout the year.
